RE: MUR 8058

Dear Messrs. Ghosh and Wieand:

The Federal Election Commission has considered the allegations contained in your Complaint dated August 24, 2022, but there were an insufficient number of votes to (1) find reason to believe that Unknown Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a contribution in the name of another; (2) find reason to believe that SQI Limited, LLC, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly permitting its name to be used to make a contribution in the name of another; (3) take no action at this time with respect to the allegation that Herzog Technologies, Inc., Herzog Contracting Corp., and Herzog Transit Services, Inc., violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a contribution in the name of another; and (4) take no action at this time with respect to the allegation that Save Missouri Values and Cabell Hobbs in his official capacity as treasurer violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another. The Commission then voted to dismiss the Complaint in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission voted to close the file on February 29, 2024. One or more Statements of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision will follow.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8). If you have any questions, please contact Justine A. di Giovanni, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1574.
