Onancock, VA 23417-

RE: MUR 8063

Dear Mr. Lewis:

On September 7, 2022, the Federal Election Commission (“Commission”) notified you of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. On April 5, 2023, based on the information provided in the complaint, the Commission decided to exercise its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss the allegations as to Michael H. Lewis. The Commission then closed its file in this matter. A copy of the General Counsel’s Report, which more fully explains the Commission’s decision, is enclosed for your information.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). If you have any questions, please contact Tiferet Unterman, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1284.

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson
Acting General Counsel

15 The Complaint in this matter alleges that Michael H. Lewis paid $650 for a newspaper
16 advertisement in support of re-electing Congressperson Elaine Luria that lacked the appropriate
17 disclaimers, in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 and Commission
18 regulations.¹ The advertisement appeared in the July 29, 2022, edition of the Eastern Shore Post
19 with the title “Re-elect Elaine Luria,” and was signed “Michael Lewis, Onancock, VA.”² Lewis has 20 not responded to the Complaint.21 Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement 22 Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and 23 assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These 24 criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, considering both the type of activity and the 25 amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the electoral 26 process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in potential
27 violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for Commission
28 action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating, Lewis’s

³ Although the available information does not indicate exactly what the ad's costs were, they were likely over $250, the threshold for independent expenditure reporting. See 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101(17), 30104(c); 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.16(a), 104.4(e)(3), 105.4, 109.10(b). The Complaint claims that the ad cost $650. Compl. at 1 (Aug. 8, 2022).
