Dear FEC CELA:

On behalf of my client, Necrason Group LLC, I confirm receipt of this second supplement to MUR 8065. As with the first supplement, no allegations in the second supplement reference or otherwise implicate my client. While the first and second supplements have all been filed by the same complainant the parties against which the complainant levels accusations differ in each and are factually distinct. Accordingly, my client has no substantive response to the supplements and will make no substantive response to any further supplement the complainant may file if such supplement neither names nor implicates Necrason Group LLC.

My client maintains that its October 5, 2022 response to the original complaint compels a conclusion by the FEC that my client has committed no wrongdoing. We look forward to hearing that the complaint against Necrason Group has been dismissed by the Commission.

Very truly yours,

Anthony N.L. Iarrapino, Esq.
