Dear Ms. Dennis:

Thank you very much and I am just following up as discussed in our phone conversation a moment ago.

My office will be acting as counsel on behalf of the respondent Vermont Secretary of State. We appreciate your willingness to grant an additional twenty days for our response. It would be great as you noted if you could please confirm by response e-mail tomorrow. We will follow up this week with our formal notice of representation and then subsequently provide our fuller response. In the meantime, my full contact information is below, and I look forward to working with you to resolve the matter.
