RE: MUR 8072
Tom Barrett for Congress,

Dear Ms. Muller:

On March 13, 2025, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your Complaint dated September 28, 2022, and on the basis of information in your Complaint and information provided by Respondents, dismissed the allegations that Thomas Barrett, Tom Barrett for Congress and Daniel Wholihan in his official capacity as treasurer, and Friends of Tom Barrett violated 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1)(A) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.3(d) and 300.61. Accordingly, on March 13, 2025, the Commission voted to close the file in this matter effective April 14, 2025.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record today. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). Any applicable Factual and Legal Analysis or Statements of Reasons available at the time of this letter's transmittal are enclosed.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action within 60 days of the dismissal, which became effective today. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson
Acting General Counsel

MUR 8072

I. INTRODUCTION

8        The Complaint alleges that Thomas M. Barrett, currently the representative for 9        Michigan's Seventh Congressional District and a former Michigan State Senator, in his bid for 10      the 2022 general election, used nonfederal funds from his state committee, Friends of Tom 11      Barrett (the "State Committee"), to pay certain consulting expenses of his federal committee, 12      Tom Barrett for Congress and Daniel Wholihan in his official capacity as treasurer (the "Federal 13      Committee"), in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the 14      "Act"). Specifically, the Complaint alleges that the State Committee paid $40,000 of nonfederal
15      funds to Roe Strategic, a consulting firm, on behalf of the Federal Committee. Respondents 16      deny the allegation, asserting that the State Committee's payments were for services provided by 17      Roe Strategic to the State Committee and that these services were separate from any services
18      provided by Roe Strategic to the Federal Committee.

19 For the reasons set forth below, the Commission dismisses the allegation that Barrett, the 20 State Committee, and the Federal Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1)(A) and 11 C.F.R.
21 §§ 110.3(d) and 300.61 by spending and receiving funds in connection with a federal election not 22 subject to the limitations, prohibitions, and reporting requirements of the Act.

1     II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2           Thomas Barrett is currently the representative for Michigan's Seventh Congressional 3     District and was a candidate for the same position during the 2022 election cycle.<sup>1</sup> He 4     previously served in the Michigan Senate and Michigan House of Representatives.<sup>2</sup> The State
 5     Committee was registered in Michigan in 2017 to support Barrett's campaign for State Senator in 6     Michigan's 24th District.<sup>3</sup> The Federal Committee filed its initial Statement of Organization
 7     with the Commission on November 10, 2021.<sup>4</sup> Five days later, on November 15, 2021, Barrett
 8     announced his candidacy for Michigan's Seventh Congressional District.<sup>5</sup> On November 17, 9     2021, Barrett filed his Statement of Candidacy with the Commission.<sup>6</sup>

10           From November 2018 until December 2021, while Barrett was a Michigan state senator, 11     a redistricting effort led by the Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission (the 12     "Redistricting Committee") was underway.<sup>7</sup> Maps approved by the Redistricting Committee

1 were published and a 45-day public comment period began on November 5, 2021.<sup>8</sup> These maps
 2 were ultimately finalized on December 28, 2021.<sup>9</sup>

3           Roe Strategic is a consulting firm that, among other services, “provides general 4 consulting for candidates, ballot initiatives, and independent expenditures,” and its principal is 5 Jason Cabel Roe, a “political and communications strategist.”<sup>10</sup> The State Committee made four 6 $10,000 payments, totaling $40,000, to Roe Strategic on October 28, November 10, 7 November 29, and December 15, 2021; all were reported with a stated purpose of “redistricting
 8 consulting.”<sup>11</sup> On December 24, 2021, the Federal Committee made its first payment to Roe
 9 Strategic for “consulting” in the amount of $28,637.48.<sup>12</sup> The Federal Committee made further 10 payments totaling $236,464.69 to Roe Strategic with the final disbursements for the 2022
 11 election dated November 7, 2022.<sup>13</sup>

12           The Complaint alleges that Barrett’s State Committee used nonfederal funds to pay for a 13 portion of the consulting expenses paid to Roe Strategic on behalf of the Federal Committee.<sup>14</sup>

Factual & Legal Analysis

1 The Complaint bases this allegation in part on the timing of the State Committee's payments,
 2 several of which were made following Barrett's announcement of his federal candidacy.<sup>15</sup>
 3 Specifically, the Complaint notes that the October 28 payment was made only 13 days before the 4 Federal Committee registered with the Commission and that the subsequent payments were made
 5 on the exact date or after the Federal Committee filed its Statement of Organization.<sup>16</sup> At the 6 time that the State Committee was making payments to Roe Strategic, the State Committee
 7 reported a beginning balance of $75,488.40,<sup>17</sup> while the Federal Committee did not report any 8 cash on hand until Barrett publicly announced his candidacy for Congress.<sup>18</sup> The Complaint
 9 claims that it is unlikely the State Committee would hire Roe Strategic to consult on redistricting
 10 as the final maps were approved on December 28, 2021, shortly after Roe Strategic was hired.<sup>19</sup>
 11 The Complaint also notes that Jason Roe "is well known as a political strategist for large scale 12 federal campaign[s]" and asserts that his website emphasizes this type of work while there is no
 13 mention of his redistricting consulting.<sup>20</sup>

14 Respondents filed a joint Response wherein they assert that the payments made by the 15 State Committee were solely for State Committee purposes and that Roe Strategic was

3           The Commission has determined that a state campaign committee of a federal candidate
 4 is, as a matter of law, EFMC’d by the federal candidate and is acting on that candidate’s behalf.<sup>34</sup>
 5 Accordingly, when Barrett became a federal candidate, the State Committee became subject to 6 the soft money provisions of the Act.

7           Federal candidates are prohibited from transferring funds from their state campaign
 8 committees to their federal committees.<sup>35</sup> The Commission has explained that this prohibition is 9 intended to prevent a federal committee’s indirect use of impermissible funds in federal 10 elections.<sup>36</sup> The prohibition on transferring funds applies broadly and includes payment by the 11 state committee for services to the federal committee.<sup>37</sup>

12           Barrett, a federal candidate, EFMC’d the State Committee within the meaning of 13 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1).<sup>38</sup> Therefore, any funds the State Committee solicited, received,

1        The available information does not indicate that the State Committee made disbursements
 2        to Roe Strategic on behalf of the Federal Committee. The Complaint rests its allegations on the 3        timing of payments to Roe from both the State and Federal Committees, the type of services
 4        provided by Roe and his continued work for the Federal Committee, and Barrett's inability to 5        impact Michigan's redistricting process at the point of Roe Strategic's hire.<sup>47</sup> However, the 6        hiring of the same vendor for a local and federal campaign is not, in it of itself, a violation.<sup>48</sup>

7        Moreover, it is plausible that Roe Strategic worked for the State Committee, and 8        provided consulting concerning the implications of the nearly-final redistricting maps as it
 9        pertained to Barrett seeking state office.<sup>49</sup> In his declaration, Roe explained that when "the final 10        maps were released by the Redistricting Commission," in December, "Tom Barrett ruled out re-
 11        election for the State Senate, as there was no winnable seat for him" and then "made the decision
 12        to pursue federal office."<sup>50</sup> It was at this point that Roe states that he began working for Tom 13        Barrett for Congress as a political consultant" and asserts that he "was never paid by Friends of 14        Tom Barrett to perform any services on behalf of Tom Barrett for Congress."<sup>51</sup>

(Nov. 8, 2004) (finding no reason to believe).

<sup>49</sup>        See Resp. at 3 ("[D]espite announcing his intent to run for federal office, Barrett did not abandon the possibility of running for State Senate. . . until it was clear that the Redistricting Committee's final maps would make it impossible for Senator Barrett to win a seat."); Roe Decl. ¶¶ 8-9 ("Tom Barrett was unsure whether he wanted to run for re-election for State Senate or run for federal office . . . [i]n November 2021, Tom Barrett announced he was running for federal office and filed campaign paperwork. However, he was still contemplating running for re-election for the State Senate.").

Page 10 of 10

1        Although Roe ultimately provided services to the Federal Committee, the available
2        information does not suggest that these services were paid for by the State Committee. As such,
3        there is insufficient information to support finding reason to believe that the State Committee
4        paid disbursements totaling $40,000 to Roe Strategic on behalf of the Federal Committee.<sup>52</sup>
5        Therefore, the Commission dismisses the allegation that Barrett, the State Committee, and the 6        Federal Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1)(A) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.3(d) and 300.61.

<sup>52</sup>        See generally F&LA at 19, MUR 8006 (Russell Fry, et al.) (dismissing the allegation that the candidate's state committee paid for the candidate's federal campaign expenses since the available information did not support a reason-to-believe finding).
