RE: MUR 8150

Dear Messrs. Brown and Borden:

On August 1, 2023, the Federal Election Commission notified your client, Passionforest, LLC, of a Complaint alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). The Commission forwarded a copy of the Complaint to your client at that time.

On January 14, 2025, the Commission found reason to believe that Passionforest, LLC violated 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(5), a provision of the Commission’s regulations, by failing to provide required attribution information. The Commission also dismissed the allegations that Passionforest, LLC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b) by knowingly permitting its name to effect a contribution in the name of another and that Passionforest, LLC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30121 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.20(b) by making a foreign national contribution. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which provides a basis for the Commission’s findings, is enclosed for your information.

In order to expedite the resolution of this matter, the Commission has authorized the Office of General Counsel to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe. Pre-probable cause conciliation is not mandated by the Act or the Commission’s regulations, but is a voluntary step in the enforcement process that the Commission is offering as a way to resolve this matter at an early stage and without the need for briefing the issue of whether the Commission should find probable cause to believe that the Committee violated the law. Enclosed is a conciliation agreement for your consideration

Please note that your client has a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records and materials relating to this matter until such time as you are notified that the Commission has closed its file in this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519.

If your client is interested in engaging in pre-probable cause conciliation, please contact Rachel Coll, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1611 or rcoll@fec.gov within seven days of receipt of this letter. During conciliation, you may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the resolution of this matter. Because the Commission only enters into pre-probable cause conciliation in matters that it believes have a reasonable opportunity for settlement, we may proceed to the next step in the enforcement process if a mutually acceptable conciliation agreement cannot be reached within sixty days. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a), 11 C.F.R. Part 111 (Subpart A). Conversely, if you are not interested in pre-probable cause conciliation, the Commission may conduct formal discovery in this matter or proceed to the next step in the enforcement process. Please note that once the Commission enters the next step in the enforcement process, it may decline to engage in further settlement discussions until after making a probable cause finding.

Pre-probable cause conciliation, extensions of time, and other enforcement procedures and options are discussed more comprehensively in the Commission’s “Guidebook for Complainants and Respondents on the FEC Enforcement Process,” which is available on the Commission’s website at http://www.fec.gov/em/respondent\_guide.pdf.

Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies.<sup>1</sup>

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. For your information, we have enclosed a brief description of the Commission’s procedures for handling possible violations of the Act.

<sup>1</sup> The Commission has the statutory authority to refer knowing and willful violations of the Act to the Department of Justice for potential criminal prosecution, 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(5)(C), and to report information regarding violations of law not within its jurisdiction to appropriate law enforcement authorities. Id. § 30107(a)(9).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENT: Passionforest, LLC

MUR 8150

I. INTRODUCTION

6 This matter arises from a Complaint alleging that Passionforest, LLC (“Passionforest”)
7 allowed its name to be used to effect a $500,000 contribution on October 28, 2022, to SOS
8 America PAC and Gloria Maggiolo in her official capacity as treasurer (the “Committee”) on 9 behalf of a true contributor or contributors in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 10 1971, as amended (the “Act”). The Complaint further alleges that Passionforest may be owned 11 and operated by one or more persons living in China and may therefore have been used to 12 conceal contributions from foreign nationals. The Complaint bases these allegations on public 13 information indicating that Passionforest did not have the financial means to make a $500,000 14 contribution. Furthermore, the Complaint notes that Passionforest was allegedly registered as an 15 LLC in Delaware and disclosed a Florida address in connection with the Committee’s 16 contribution, whereas a U.S. Patent and Trademark Office application for the word 17 “Passionforest” lists the patent applicant as a wholesaler of plastic flower arrangements at an 18 address in Guangzhou, China.

19 Passionforest denies the allegations in its Response and states that the LLC referenced as 20 “Passionforest” in the Complaint and the LLC that made the contribution to the Committee are 21 two different entities and the latter has no connection to plastic flower arrangements or the city
22 of Guangzhou. The Response states that Ivan Soto-Wright created the Passionforest entity that 23 made the contribution in 2021 and that he funded it shortly thereafter to hold his assets.

1 Passionforest provided a sworn declaration from Soto-Wright in which he avers that he was the 2 sole provider of Passionforest's funds, and that none of its assets came from any foreign national.

3 The available information does not indicate that Passionforest received any funds for the 4 purpose of making a contribution. Accordingly, the Commission dismisses the allegations that 5 Passionforest knowingly permitted its name to be used to effect a contribution in the name of 6 another in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). Furthermore, the 7 Commission dismisses the allegations that Passionforest made a foreign national contribution in 8 violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30121 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.20(b).

9 As for the proper attribution of the Passionforest contribution to Ivan Soto-Wright, 10 Passionforest acknowledged that it did not provide attribution information to the Committee at 11 the time it made the contribution or in response to an initial request from the Committee, but 12 rather did so only after a subsequent request from the Committee several months later when it 13 received notification of the Complaint. Accordingly, the Commission finds reason to believe 14 that Passionforest failed to provide attribution information to the Committee in violation of 15 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(5).

16 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

17 Passionforest is a limited liability company that Ivan Soto-Wright established on 18 November 30, 2021, in Delaware, and its registered agent is Corporation Service Company.<sup>1</sup>

1        The Committee is an independent expenditure-only political committee (“IEOPC”) that 2 registered with the Commission on January 20, 2022.<sup>2</sup> Its treasurer is Gloria Maggiolo.<sup>3</sup> In its 3 2022 Post-General Report, the Committee reported receiving a $500,000 contribution from 4 “Passionforest, LLC” on October 28, 2022. The Committee initially identified Passionforest as a 5 “flower wholesaler” and provided no attribution information associated with the contribution but 6 stated in the Report that “contributor info has been requested for Passionforest LLC.”<sup>4</sup> On 7 July 25, 2023, the Complaint was filed in this matter and Soto-Wright became aware of the 8 Complaint that same day.<sup>5</sup> On July 31, 2023, in its 2023 Mid-Year Report, the Committee
 9 attributed the Passionforest contribution to Soto-Wright and stated in a memo entry that the 10 “[c]ontribution was reported on Oct 28, 2022 with missing partnership attribution. . . . [R]elated
 11 Partnership Attribution to Passionforest LLC.”<sup>6</sup>

12        The Complaint alleges that Passionforest was not the true contributor of the $500,000
 13 contribution to the Committee.<sup>7</sup> It bases this allegation on Passionforest’s lack of financial 14 information available online through databases maintained by the Better Business Bureau, 15 Bloomberg, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Greater Miami Chamber of

1 Commerce, or the Miami-Dade Chamber of Commerce, since the address disclosed in 2 connection with the contribution at issue was in Miami, Florida.<sup>8</sup> The Complaint concludes from 3 the limited publicly available information concerning Passionforest that it did not have the 4 financial means to make a $500,000 contribution.<sup>9</sup> Although the Complaint notes
 5 Passionforest's registration as a Delaware domestic limited liability company, it alleges that the 6 Committee's reporting of Passionforest as a "flower wholesaler" is evidence that the relevant 7 entity is an Amazon wholesaler of artificial flower arrangements with a U.S. Patent and 8 Trademark Office application listing an address in China.<sup>10</sup> On this basis the Complaint alleges 9 that Passionforest was used as a straw donor to funnel a contribution from a foreign national in 10 violation of the Act.<sup>11</sup>

11 Passionforest responds that its contribution to the Committee came from Soto-Wright's 12 individual earnings and assets only and that its contribution was not a conduit contribution by a 13 straw donor.<sup>12</sup> Soto-Wright avers that the use of Passionforest to make the contribution was a 14 matter of financial convenience and not an effort to conceal Soto-Wright's identity.<sup>13</sup> The 15 Response also denies that the contribution was made through a straw donor on behalf of a 16 foreign national, stating that the Complaint connecting Passionforest the contributor to the 17 Chinese wholesaler of plastic flower arrangements is a "clear case of mistaken identity" and that

1 the Passionforest entity established by Soto-Wright has no affiliation with foreign nationals as 2 alleged in the Complaint.<sup>14</sup> The Soto-Wright Declaration also denies that Passionforest is 3 involved in the business of selling artificial flowers and reiterates that all funds came from him, a 4 United States citizen, and not via any foreign national.<sup>15</sup> Passionforest's Response states that 5 Soto-Wright is "the sole ultimate owner" that "Passionforest holds a number of assets," and that 6 "a primary purpose of establishing Passionforest is to hold these assets separate from [Soto-
7 Wright's] interest in MoonPay, Inc., a company of which [Soto-Wright is] co-founder and Chief
8 Executive Officer."<sup>16</sup>

9 Soto-Wright acknowledges in his declaration that the Committee sent him an attribution
10 form in December 2022, and that he did not return it, stating:

11 In December 2022, SOS America [PAC] sent me an attribution
12 form, asking if the contribution from Passionforest should be 13 attributed to an individual. Being unfamiliar with this form, I 14 forwarded the form to one of my employees, as I often do with 15 similar forms and other requests. My employee was also 16 unfamiliar with the form, and consulted with legal counsel, but 17 ultimately the form was not completed. For its part, SOS America
18 [PAC] did not follow up on the issue further (reaching out again 19 only this summer). As such, I assumed that it was not actually 20 necessary that I complete the form, and I did not pursue the matter
21 further.<sup>17</sup>

 4           of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)

5           The Act provides that a contribution includes “any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or 6   deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any 7   election for Federal office.”<sup>18</sup> The term “person” for purposes of the Act and Commission 8   regulations includes partnerships, corporations, and “any other organization or group of 10   person, knowingly permitting his or her name to be used to effect such a contribution, or 11   knowingly accepting such a contribution.<sup>20</sup> The Commission’s regulations include illustrations

- 13                   (i)    Giving money or anything of value, all or part of which 14                    was provided to the contributor by another person (the true

2       Here, the available information does not indicate that Passionforest operated as a conduit

 5 provided the funds used to make the contribution to the LLC in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122

1        In the instant matter, Passionforest did not attribute the contribution to Soto-Wright at the 2 time the contribution was made as is required by Commission regulations.<sup>38</sup> Nine months later, 3 after the Complaint was filed, Passionforest attributed the contribution to Soto-Wright, which is 4 reflected in the Committee's 2023 Mid-Year Report filed on July 31, 2023.<sup>39</sup>

5           The Passionforest Response identifies Soto-Wright as the "sole member of the LLC."<sup>40</sup>

6        In his declaration, Soto-Wright states that he is the "sole ultimate owner" of the assets held by 7 Passionforest,<sup>41</sup> evidencing that Passionforest did not elect to be treated as a corporation by the 8 Internal Revenue Service. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(4), Passionforest's
 9 contributions should have been attributed to the LLC's single member, Soto-Wright.<sup>42</sup>

10          Therefore, the Commission finds reason to believe that Passionforest violated 11 C.F.R.

11        § 110.1(g)(5) by failing to provide attribution information required by 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(4) to 12 the recipient Committee at the time Passionforest made the contribution.
