Good evening:

The absurd and frivolous complaint alleges that sending an email from a campaign account indicating that campaign members will be in attendance at an entirely separate, ticketed event, run by the local republican county party, some how “diverts” sales of tickets into donations to my campaign.

Such an allegation is so absurd and meritless that it doesn’t serve a reply, but for the sake of confusion, let me make clear:

- The email was sent from a private campaign-controlled / owned email list.
- It lists a link to an entirely separate event, solely because members of the campaign team will be in attendance at said event and it’s an opportunity to meet and say hello.
- There is no connection whatsoever between the County REC (which I serve as Chair) and my separate campaign for congress.
- no account or links are co-mingled whatsoever.

If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to ask.
