RE: MUR 8170

Dear Ms. LeBlanc:

On October 8, 2024, the Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your Complaint dated September 28, 2023, and, based on the information provided in your Complaint and information provided by the Respondents, voted to (1) dismiss the allegation that Lafazan for Congress and Alex Leibson in the official capacity of treasurer (the “Federal Committee”) made disbursements to benefit Josh Lafazan for Responsible Government (the “County Committee”) in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1)(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d); (2) dismiss the allegation that the County Committee made a prohibited transfer to the Federal Committee in the form of Joshua Lafazan’s Facebook account in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d); and (3) dismiss the allegation that the Federal Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.3(a), 104.13(a) by failing to report an in-kind contribution from Joshua Lafazan. Accordingly, the Commission voted to close the file in this matter effective November 12, 2024.

The Commission will place documents related to the case on the public record today. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). Any applicable Factual and Legal Analysis or Statements of Reasons available at the time of this letter’s transmittal are enclosed.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission’s dismissal of this action within 60 days of the dismissal, which became effective today. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8). If you have any questions, please contact Justine A. di Giovanni, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSIONFACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENTS: Lafazan for Congress and Alex Liebson MUR 8170
in his official capacity as treasurer
Joshua Lafazan
Josh Lafazan for Responsible Government

I. INTRODUCTION

This matter arises from a Complaint alleging that Joshua Lafazan, who was simultaneously a candidate for reelection to the Nassau County, New York Legislature in the 18th District and for U.S. House of Representatives in New York's 3rd District; Josh Lafazan for Responsible Government (the "County Committee"), his county legislature campaign committee; and Lafazan for Congress and Alex Leibson in his official capacity as treasurer (the "Federal Committee"), his federal campaign committee, violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). The Complaint alleges the Federal Committee impermissibly financed the County Committee; and the County Committee made a prohibited transfer to the Federal Committee via a "Josh Lafazan" Facebook account or, in the alternative, the Federal Committee failed to report an in-kind contribution from Lafazan by allowing it to use his Facebook account.

Because some of the facts, as alleged, would not constitute a violation of the Act, and some appear not to have occurred, the Commission dismisses the allegation that the Federal Committee made disbursements to benefit the County Committee in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1)(B) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d). It also appears likely the Facebook account belongs to Lafazan. Accordingly, the Commission dismisses the allegation that the County Committee made a prohibited transfer to the Federal Committee of the Lafazan Facebook account in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d). The Commission further exercises its prosecutorial discretion and dismisses the allegation that the Federal Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.3(a), 104.13(a) by failing to report an in-kind contribution from Lafazan in the form of use of his Facebook account.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Joshua Lafazan was a county legislator in the Nassau County 18th Legislative District in New York who ran for reelection to that seat in 2023.¹ Simultaneously, he was also a candidate for the U.S. House in New York's 3rd Congressional District.² The County Committee is his campaign committee for the county legislature seat,³ and the Federal Committee is his authorized committee for his congressional campaign.⁴

The Complaint first alleges that Lafazan's Federal Committee impermissibly financed his County Committee in two ways: (1) by paying for advertisements on Lafazan's Facebook profile to advance the County Committee;⁵ and (2) by paying ActBlue credit card processing fees for the County Committee, as well as potentially other, unknown expenses.⁶

Lafazan and the Federal Committee submitted a Joint Response (the “Lafazan Response”) denying the allegations,⁷ supported by sworn declarations⁸ and copies of the County Committee’s New York election filings from the relevant time period, and images reflecting information about the Facebook advertisements placed on Lafazan’s page.⁹

The Lafazan Response states that, while some of the advertisements placed on Lafazan’s Facebook page for Lafazan’s county campaign bore a disclaimer reading “Paid for by Lafazan for Congress,” the ads were actually paid for by the nonfederal campaign but inadvertently contained the wrong disclaimer.¹⁰ The Response states that, “[a]fter recognizing the issue, new versions of the ads were disseminated with the correct disclaimer.”¹¹ The Meta Ad Library reflects that two ads appeared with the incorrect disclaimer.¹²

The Response states that the Lafazan Facebook page is “a personal asset of Mr. Lafazan[’s], not an official account for either” the County Committee or the Federal Committee, and that it “cost Mr. Lafazan no money to set up or maintain.”¹³ It also contends that the page “has no value under federal campaign finance law.”¹⁴ Lafazan attests that he launched the

Facebook page in 2017 “at no cost to [him]self,”¹⁵ and that it “is a personal asset of mine, and I have used it for my nonfederal and federal campaigns. However, the page is not owned or maintained by either campaign committee.”¹⁶ The “Page transparency” information for the account states that “Josh Lafazan for Responsible Government is responsible for this Page,” and that this connection has been “authenticated using trusted documentation.”¹⁷

The Response states that “the federal and nonfederal campaigns each have their own, wholly separate ActBlue pages,” for which each campaign pays its own fees.¹⁸ It states that the County Committee reported no disbursements to ActBlue or any other vendor because Lafazan had “not yet decided whether he would run for re-election” until after the July reporting period for New York election filings, and the County Committee had no activity to report.¹⁹

The Response further states that, even if any of the conduct alleged had occurred, it would not constitute a violation of the Act, as candidates simultaneously running for federal and local office may disburse unlimited funds from their federal committees for the benefit of their nonfederal committees, so long as doing so complies with state law.²⁰

1 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 A. The Commission Dismisses the Allegation That the Federal Committee Made 3 Disbursements to Benefit the County Committee in Violation of 52 U.S.C. 4 § 30125(e)(1)(B) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d)

5 Under the Act, a federal candidate or officeholder, agents thereof, or an entity directly or
 6 indirectly established, financed, maintained, or controlled by or acting on behalf of one or more
 7 candidates or federal officeholders may not solicit, receive, direct, transfer, or spend non-federal
 8 funds in connection with a state election.²¹ The Act, however, provides a limited exception to 9 this restriction for a federal candidate or officeholder who is or was also a candidate for a state or 10 local office, so long as the solicitation, receipt, or spending of funds: (1) is “solely in connection
 11 with such election for State or local office;” (2) “refers only” to him or her, to other candidates
 12 for that same state or local office, or both; and (3) is permitted under state law.²² Further, the 13 Act permits candidates to use campaign funds for a wide variety of enumerated purposes,
 14 including “for donations to State and local candidates subject to the provisions of State law,” or 15 “any other lawful purpose” that does not constitute conversion of campaign funds to “personal 16 use.”²³

17 Here, because Lafazan was running for both federal and state offices, the disbursement of 18 Federal Committee funds for the benefit of the County Committee would appear to be a
 19 permissible use of campaign funds and does not appear to violate New York law, which allows

1 such transfers between the authorized committees of the same candidate.²⁴ Further, the
 2 Respondents attest that the Federal Committee did not, in fact, make any disbursements for the
 3 benefit of the County Committee, and this Office is in possession of no information contradicting
 4 those assertions. Accordingly, the Commission dismisses the allegation that the Committees
 5 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

6 B. The Commission Dismisses the Allegations Concerning the Dual Use of 7 Lafazan’s Facebook Page

8 The Act prohibits federal candidates, officeholders, agents of such candidates or 9 officeholders, or “an entity directly or indirectly established, financed, maintained or controlled
 10 by or acting on behalf of [one] or more candidates or individuals holding Federal office” from 11 soliciting, receiving, directing, transferring, or spending funds “in connection with an election for 12 Federal office . . . unless the funds are subject to the limitations, prohibitions, and reporting
 13 requirements of [the] Act.”²⁵ Further, the Commission’s regulations prohibit “[t]ransfers of 14 funds or assets from a candidate’s campaign committee or account for a nonfederal election to 15 his or her principal campaign committee or other authorized committee for a federal election.”²⁶

²⁴ Under New York election law, campaign contributions are subject to limits established and annually adjusted by the state legislature. N.Y. Elec. Law § 14-114; N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs. Tit. 9, § 6214.0. “Contributions” include “any funds received by a political committee from another political committee to the extent such funds do not constitute a transfer.” N.Y. Elec. Law § 14-100(9)(2). A “transfer” includes “any exchange of funds or anything of value between political committees authorized by the same candidate and taking part solely in his campaign.” Id. § 14-100(10). Transfers are not included in the contribution limit provided under § 14-114 of the New York Election Law. See Factual & Legal Analysis (“F&LA”) at 3-4, MUR 7506 (Sean Patrick Maloney for Congress, et al.) (“Here, because Maloney was running for both federal and state offices, the transfer of funds from the Federal Committee to the State Committee appears to be a permissible use of campaign funds and does not appear to violate New York law, which allows such transfers between the authorized committees of the same candidate.” (citing N.Y. Elec. Law §§ 14-100(9)(2), (10), 14-114; N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs. Tit. 9, § 6214.0)).

²⁶ 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

1 The available information indicates that Lafazan owned the Facebook account and made
 2 it available for use by both his committees, which paid for advertisements on the page.²⁷ When
 3 the Lafazan Facebook account was created, it bore the name “Legislator Josh Lafazan,” and the 4 name was later changed to simply “Josh Lafazan.”²⁸ Furthermore, Lafazan attests that the 5 Facebook page is his “personal asset,” and that it is “not owned or maintained by either
 6 campaign committee.”²⁹

7 Under these circumstances, the available information appears to indicate that Lafazan
 8 owned the Facebook account and made it available for use by both Committees. Accordingly,
 9 the County Committee could not transfer it to the Federal Committee, and therefore the 10 Commission dismisses the allegation that the County Committee made a prohibited transfer to 11 the Federal Committee in the form of the Lafazan Facebook account in violation of 52 U.S.C.
 12 § 30125(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(d).

13 A contribution is any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of 14 value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.³⁰
 15 “Anything of value,” in turn, includes all “in-kind contributions,” such as “the provision of any 16 goods or services without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge for

1 such goods or services.”³¹ Under the Act, an individual may not make a contribution to a
 2 candidate with respect to any election in excess of the legal limit.³² However, “candidates for
 3 Federal office may make unlimited expenditures from personal funds,” which include in-kind
 4 contributions to their principal campaign committees.³³ A candidate committee must report the
 5 identity of any person who makes a contribution to the committee during the reporting period,
 6 whose contributions have an aggregate value in excess of $200 per election cycle.³⁴

7 Here, while the Federal Committee did not report an in-kind contribution for the use of 8 Lafazan’s social media accounts, the informational harm associated with the lack of disclosure is 9 low: Lafazan’s relationship with the account is apparent, since it bears his name, and the 10 “About” page states that Josh Lafazan for Responsible Government is responsible for the page.
 11 Accordingly, the Commission exercises its prosecutorial discretion and dismisses the allegation
 12 that the Federal Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.3(a), 104.13(a)
 13 by failing to report an in-kind contribution.³⁵
