MUR 8237*Re: Dan Frei for Congress Public Political Communications

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write to inform you of an apparent violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("FECA"). I request an immediate investigation and enforcement action against Daniel Edward Frei and his campaign committee, Dan Frei for Congress, for failing to comply with the Federal Election Commission's regulations and applicable law.

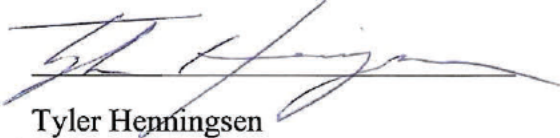

This complaint is filed pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1) and is based on information providing reason to believe that respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30120 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(c)(2), which require that all public communications paid for and authorized by a candidate, an authorized committee of a candidate, or an agent of either of the foregoing or political committee must include a disclaimer that clearly states that the communication has been paid for by the authorized political committee. Further, 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(c)(2) also requires that the disclaimer must be of sufficient type size to be clearly readable by the recipient and be contained in a printed box set apart from the other contents of the communication.

Daniel Edward Frei is a candidate for United States Representative in Nebraska's Second Congressional District. Mr. Frei's principal campaign committee, Dan Frei for Congress (FEC ID: C00866749), is registered with the Federal Election Commission.

Mr. Frei and his campaign committee failed to abide by the disclaimer rule on at least six occasions, as documented by the photographs included below. In each case, the required disclaimer is not present on the yard sign. The signs, ranging in size from eighteen inches by twenty-four inches to four feet by eight feet, are posted within public view. Additionally, Mr. Frei posed with the illegal signs in photographs posted by his campaign committee on the social media platform X (formerly known as Twitter).

Therefore, I ask the Federal Election Commission to investigate his violations of the FECA's disclaimer requirements, enjoin him and his campaign from future violations, and fine them the maximum amount permitted by law.

Respectfully submitted,

Tyler Hemmingsen
