RE: MUR 8239
Republican National Committee, et al.

Dear Ms. Crosbie:

On April 15, 2024, the Federal Election Commission notified the Republican National Committee (the “Committee,”) and you in your official capacity as treasurer, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to the Committee at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied in response, the Commission, on December 4, 2024, voted to dismiss this matter and close the file effective January 6, 2025. The General Counsel’s Report, which more fully explains the Commission’s decision, is enclosed for your information.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record today. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

DISMISSAL REPORT

MUR: 8239

Respondents: Republican National Committee and Kristin Crosbie in her official capacity as treasurer
Save America and Bradley Crate in his official capacity as treasurer

Complaint Receipt Date: April 10, 2024

11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)

20 The Complaint alleges that an unknown individual or individuals made, and the Republican 21 National Committee and Kristin Crosbie in her official capacity as treasurer, the national party 22 committee of the Republican Party (the “RNC”),¹ and Save America and Bradley Crate in his 23 official capacity as treasurer, a nonconnected committee which is a leadership PAC sponsored by 24 Donald J. Trump, candidate for President in the 2024 election cycle (“Save America”),² knowingly 25 accepted contributions in the name of another, in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 26 1971, as amended (the “Act”).³

27 Complainant states that he examined the committees' disclosure reports and identified

1 contributions totaling $723 disclosed by the RNC ($315) and Save America ($408) during the 2014,
 2 2020, and 2022 election cycles,⁵ as well as a chart with Complainant’s “valid” contributions made
 3 to other political committees.⁶

4 In Response, the RNC states that it has received contributions from numerous individuals 5 named Stephen Nelson, the name of the Complainant, and that the “discrepancies” alleged in the 6 Complaint are “inadvertent database errors.”⁷ The RNC states that the contributions at issue were 7 made by other individuals with the name Stephen Nelson but that its database mistakenly appended
 8 Complainant’s identifying information to those contributions.⁸ The RNC states that it will file a 9 Form 99 with the Commission to correct the public record and requests that the Commission 10 dismiss the Complaint.⁹ As of the date of this report, the RNC has not filed a Form 99 regarding the 11 contributions in question.¹⁰

12 In Response, Save America states that the contributions disclosed by it were not fraudulent, 13 but instead were made by other individuals named Stephen Nelson, as evidenced by the distinct 14 employer names listed for the contributions identified in the Complaint as fraudulent compared to 15 those identified as valid.¹¹ Save America requests that the Commission dismiss the Complaint.¹²

1 assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These 2 criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity 3 and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the 4 electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in 5 potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for 6 Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating and low 7 apparent dollar amount at issue, and the expiration of the statute of limitations as to some of the 8 conduct alleged, we recommend that the Commission dismiss the Complaint, consistent with the 9 Commission's prosecutorial discretion to determine the proper ordering of its priorities and use of 10 agency resources.¹³ We also recommend that the Commission close the file effective 30 days from 12 30th day falls on a weekend or holiday) and send the appropriate letters.
