Kathryn,

This email is a follow up to the voicemail message that I (and Tom Datwyler) left you about an hour ago.

As you are well aware, you and I had a number of email exchanges about getting all the respective Designations of Counsel filed with your office. The only one that still remains pending is Mr. McGuire's individually. Tom has been diligently trying to get the Designation of Counsel from Mr. McGuire for the last couple weeks. However, since Mr. McGuire was actively involved in a recount of his primary election (which finally concluded yesterday), Tom has not been able to get Mr. McGuire's Designation.

Based on all of this, I would respectfully request a one-week extension of the deadline to file, which is currently scheduled for today. Now that Mr. McGuire's recount has concluded, Tom should hopefully be able to get a signed Designation of Counsel by early next week, which will allow us to file all the responses (including Mr. McGuire's) by next Friday.

Please let me know if this extension can be granted.

Feel free to call me with any questions.

Frank
