RE: MUR 8313
Sam Brown for Nevada, et al.

Dear Mr. McCauley:

On September 11, 2024, the Federal Election Commission notified Duty First Nevada PAC (the "Committee"), and you in your official capacity as treasurer, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to the Committee at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied in response, the Commission, on April 10, 2025, voted to dismiss this matter and close the file effective May 12, 2025. The General Counsel's Report, which more fully explains the Commission's decision, is enclosed for your information.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record today. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson

DISMISSAL REPORT

MUR 8313

Respondents: Sam Brown for Nevada and Chrissie Hastie in her official capacity as treasurer
Duty First Nevada PAC and Mike McCauley in his official capacity as treasurer

Complaint Receipt Date: Sept. 9, 2024

Response Dates: Sept. 27, 2024; Oct. 24, 2024

Alleged Statutory/Regulatory Violations:

52 U.S.C. §§ 30104(a)-(b), 30116(a), (f)
11 C.F.R. §§ 104.3, 109.20, 109.21

The Complaint alleges that Duty First Nevada PAC and Mike McCauley in his official capacity as treasurer (“Duty First”), an independent expenditure-only political committee that has since terminated,¹ made, and Sam Brown for Nevada and Chrissie Hastie in her official capacity as treasurer (the “Committee”), the principal campaign committee of Sam Brown,² 2024 candidate for Senator from Nevada,³ knowingly accepted, a prohibited and unreported in-kind contribution in the form of video footage, in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”).⁴ Specifically, the Complaint alleges that Duty First paid a vendor “over $34,000” to produce at least 12 videos and placed the videos in “a difficult to find corner of the internet,” i.e., on ⁴ Compl. at 7 (Sept. 9, 2024).

1 Vimeo.com posted by a user with a name previously used by the vendor, and that the Committee
2 subsequently used a portion of one of the videos (a 45-second clip of a Brown supporter speaking to
3 the camera) in its own advertisement.⁵

4 In Response, Duty First argues that the Complaint is founded on “mere speculation and 5 inference” and that the Commission should dismiss the Complaint because it makes no allegation
6 and provides no evidence of coordination.⁶ Duty First argues that it posted material in a public
7 online forum, and that while it shared a common vendor with the Committee, such an arrangement
8 is not prohibited so long as “appropriate procedures” are in place.⁷

9 In Response, the Committee states that the video footage at issue was publicly available and 10 easily findable by searching the name of the Brown supporter in the Vimeo search bar.⁸ Further, the 11 Response includes an affidavit from an employee of the vendor who produced the video stating that 12 an internal firewall was maintained regarding operations for Duty First and the Committee,⁹ and
13 argues that the internet exemption in the Commission’s regulations applies.¹⁰ Further, the Response
14 states that the video was posted without a copyright and was in the public domain.¹¹

1 assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These
 2 criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity
 3 and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the 4 electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in 5 potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for 6 Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating and low
 7 apparent dollar amount at issue, we recommend that the Commission dismiss the Complaint,
 8 consistent with the Commission's prosecutorial discretion to determine the proper ordering of its
 9 priorities and use of agency resources.¹² We also recommend that the Commission close the file
 10 effective 30 days from the date the certification of this vote is signed (or on the next business day 11 after the 30th day, if the 30th day falls on a weekend or holiday) and send the appropriate letters.
