Kathryn Ross,

The donations were credit card donations processed by Authorize.net (for Wells Fargo) and Winred.com (for GOP).

Authorize and Winred processed these donations using the information provided by the donors and applied the donation amounts to the campaign account (less fees).

At each quarterly FEC reporting period, donation information is extracted from credit card processing agents and uploaded to the FEC reporting website.

The campaign reported the contributions as provided by the processing agents.

The campaign was closed in July since Dave Giles did not win the 2024 Republican primary election and closed with the FEC after the third quarter reporting period.
