Mr. Moench,

This email confirms your extension request is approved and your clients response is now due on November 22, 2024. I also received the designation of counsels for your clients but noticed the one for Congressman Drew is signed by Mr. Crate, therefore, I need a new designation of counsel signed by the Congressman unless Mr. Crate has a POA for him that he can submit for the record. Thank you for your time and assistance, enjoy your day.

Kind regards,
Christal

Subject: Diamond v. Van Drew, MUR 8338

Dear Sir/Madam:

I have just been retained to represent Congressman Jeff Van Drew, Van Drew for Congress, and Bradley T. Crate, in the above-referenced matter filed with the FEC. I understand that tomorrow is the deadline for providing a response. I am in the process of getting the designation of counsel emailed over. In the interim, I wanted to request an extension of time to provide a response until November 22nd to provide me sufficient time to gather all the facts and present the information to your office for review.

Please let me know if such an extension is granted or if I need to make a more formal request through a different process. Thank you.

Matthew
