

One person..myself...has never represented more than one state in voting. They said they didn't want me anymore which means they have been operating independently of me since at least 1976.

You can't change the rules to suit foreign companies.

Comments provided by :

Hahn, Kristin