MID-YEAR REPORTS OF NATIONAL PARTY COMMITTEES SHOW REPUBLICAN LEAD

WASHINGTON — The disparate financial condition of the national committees of the two major political parties is continuing, according to the latest reports filed with the Federal Election Commission.

The FEC's compilation of those figures reveals that the Republican party continued its commanding 5 to 1 lead in fundraising during the first six months of 1989, raising $45 million to the Democrats $9 million. As they begin the second half of the year, the Republican national committees have cash-on-hand that is more than three times that of the Democrats, with less than a half million dollar debt, compared to two-and-one-half million dollars owed by the Democrats.

Summary figures for all national committees are:

	Republicans	Democrats
Receipts	$45,038,340	$ 8,933,367
Disbursements	$36,406,607	$10,129,194
Cash-on-Hand	$14,880,861	$ 4,352,218
Debts	$ 421,160	$ 2,473,581

The following pages detail the receipts and disbursements of the Republican National Committee and the DNC Services Committee, as well as the national Senatorial and Congressional committees of both parties. The activity summarized covers January 1 through June 30, 1989, with comparable six-month activity reported in 1985 and 1987.
