I self manage a non-connected Federal PAC and have found that the website is difficult to manage when I have reporting questions. For example, I recently was asked to clarify the purpose of a disbursement. I went on-line to research what are commonly used terms and could not find anything.

It is difficult to do legal research on site. I think having a "Frequently Asked Questions" section would be incredible helpful.

Thanks for working on this.

Sincerely,
Jose Cruz

Dear FEC:

Thank you for this opportunity to comment. I have tried to use the site several times to complete reporting forms. Why can't the site display the same as the paper form. It would be easy to enter the information and complete the form. As it is now, every time I try to use it, I get so frustrated, I end up going back to the paper form.

Sincerely,
Susan L. Grupe

I would like to see a constantly updated template of the primary and general election dates by state.

The website has been unaccessible when I need to use it.

Show a clear linkage of a member personal campaign to his leadership pac.

Show most frequently used items up front on the home page.
