DRAFT C

8 Dear Mr. Truax:

9 We are responding to your request for an advisory opinion on behalf of Certified
10 Voter, LLC (“Certified Voter”) concerning the application of the Federal Election 11 Campaign Act, 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101-45 (the “Act”), and Commission regulations to 12 Certified Voter’s proposal to sell its sponsored advertisement services to political 13 committees. The Commission concludes that Certified Voter may provide these services 14 for a commercially reasonable fee as proposed because in doing so it does not make any 15 in-kind contribution to client political committees.

16 Background

17 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letters received on 18 August 16, 2021, Advisory Opinion Request (“AOR”) at AOR001, and September 27
19 2021. AOR Supp. at 001. Certified Voter is a limited liability company that proposes to 20 offer a commercial service to political committees by creating, storing, and distributing 21 custom sponsored advertisements (“sponsored ads”) that identify and can be shared by 22 the committees’ contributors. Id.

23 The request describes Certified Voter’s services as follows: a political committee 24 that retains Certified Voter’s services would send a fundraising solicitation to the 25 committee’s donors. This solicitation would notify supporters that if they contribute a 26 certain minimum amount to the committee, they would be offered the option to receive a

1 customized sponsored ad from the campaign. A supporter would then be directed to the 2 committee’s website where they would make the contribution<sup>1</sup> and, if they choose to 3 receive a sponsored ad, select the advertisement they wish to customize from one or more
4 video advertisements that “have already been created [and paid for] by” the committee.<sup>2</sup>
5 AOR001. Next, the committee would transmit to Certified Voter the contributor’s
6 information along with the contributor’s chosen advertisement. Certified Voter’s 7 “system” would use this information to generate a sponsored ad by inserting a “brief 8 message” at either the beginning or end of the committee’s video advertisement.
9 AOR001-02. This message would include a “voice-over indicating the [advertisement] 10 has been sponsored” and “a page of text consisting of the name of the ‘sponsor,’ the 11 sponsor’s hometown and, possibly, other identifying information such as [the sponsor’s]
12 social media address.” AOR001. Finally, Certified Voter would deliver the sponsored ad 13 to the committee. You “anticipate that the sponsored ad [would] then [be] shared” with 14 the contributor, who would be encouraged “to share the sponsored ad with friends and 15 family via social media.” AOR002. Distribution and use of the sponsored ad after it is 16 transmitted by Certified Voter to the committee, however, “is strictly within the control 17 of” the committee and, presumably, the recipient contributor. Id.

<sup>1</sup> The request clarifies that contributors who choose to receive a sponsored ad “will not be paying directly for [political] advertising.” Contributions made by those who wish to receive a sponsored ad will be used by the recipient political committees “as it deems appropriate just as with any other contribution.” AOR002.

<sup>2</sup> The request stipulates and the Commission assumes for purposes of this advisory opinion that all political advertisements produced by political committees will comply with all applicable legal requirements (including, without limitation, disclaimer requirements) under the Act and Commission regulations. AOR001.

1           You further “anticipate that the entire sponsored ad process will, from the 2 [contributor’s] point of view, take place entirely within the website of the campaign or 3 PAC.” Id. Certified Voter will exclusively act behind-the-scenes as a “commercial 4 vendor” that digitally generates sponsored ads for its political committee customers at “a 5 commercially-reasonable fee.”<sup>3</sup> AOR001.

6           Question Presented

7           Is Certified Voter’s proposal to sell sponsored advertisement services to political 8 committees for a commercially reasonable fee permissible under the Act and Commission 9 regulations?

10          Legal Analysis and Conclusion

11           Yes, Certified Voter may sell sponsored advertisement services to political 12 committees for a commercially reasonable fee as proposed because in doing so it would 13 not make an in-kind contribution to any committee.

14           The Act and Commission regulations prohibit corporations, including limited 15 liability companies that have elected to be treated as corporations for federal tax 16 purposes, from making a “contribution,” which includes “any direct or indirect payment, 17 distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money, or any services, or anything of 18 value . . . to any candidate, campaign committee, or political party or organization, in 19 connection with any [federal] election.” 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a), (b)(2); 11 C.F.R.
20 § 114.2(b); 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(3); see also 52 U.S.C. § 30101(8)(A)(i); 11 C.F.R.

<sup>3</sup>           See AOR001-02 (“During this entire process, [contributors] will be interacting with the campaign or PAC rather than directly with Certified Voter.”). The Commission is not opining on any activity involving Certified Voter collecting, processing, or forwarding contributions to political committees. See AOR Supp. at 001.

1 § 100.52(a). “[A]nything of value” includes all in-kind contributions, such as the 2 provision of goods and services without charge or at less than the “usual and normal
3 charge.” See 11 C.F.R. § 100.52(d)(1). Commission regulations define “usual and 4 normal charge” as the price of goods in the market from which they ordinarily would 5 have been purchased at the time of the contribution, or the commercially reasonable rate
6 prevailing at the time the services were rendered. See 11 C.F.R. § 100.52(d)(2).

7 In sum, the question of whether Certified Voter’s activities would result in a 8 contribution under the Act and Commission regulations turn on whether its political 9 committee customers would pay Certified Voter the usual and normal charge (or other 10 consideration of equal value) for its services.

11 Certified Voter intends to provide a specific service to political committees:
12 attaching custom sponsorship statements identifying certain individual contributors to the 13 committees to political advertisements that have already been produced and paid for by 14 these committees. AOR001-02. In exchange for this service, the request states that 15 political committees will pay Certified Voter a “commercially-reasonable” fee. AOR001.
16 Because the requestor will provide its services to client committees at a “commercially
17 reasonable” fee, it is not providing goods or services at less than the “usual or normal 18 charge” and is not making an in-kind contribution to its political committee customers.

19 This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the 20 Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your 21 request. See 52 U.S.C. § 30108. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change 22 in any of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to 23 a conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that

1 conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific 2 transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the 3 transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on 4 this advisory opinion. See 52 U.S.C. § 30108(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or 5 conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the 6 law including, but not limited to, statutes, regulations, advisory opinions, and case law.
7 Any advisory opinions cited herein are available on the Commission’s website.
