The total of the misstated amounts was $2,024,213. The Audit staff recommends that NAC amend its disclosure reports to correct the misstatement. (For more detail, see p. 4.)

Finding 2. Disclosure of Receipts

During audit fieldwork, the Audit staff identified 16 receipts totaling $2,704,569 that were missing or lacked required disclosure information. The Audit staff recommends that NAC amend its reports and correctly disclose these transactions on Schedule A (Itemized Receipts). (For more detail, see p. 5.)

Finding 3. Disclosure of Disbursements

The Audit staff identified 653 disbursements totaling $4,188,384 that were either missing or lacked required disclosure information. The Audit staff recommends that NAC amend its reports to correctly disclose these transactions on Schedule B (Itemized Disbursements). (For more detail, see p. 6.)

Part IV Findings and Recommendations

Finding 1. Misstatement of Financial Activity

Summary

During audit fieldwork, a comparison of NAC's reported financial activity with its bank records revealed a misstatement of financial activity for disbursements during 2011 through 2012. The total of the misstated amounts was $2,024,213. The Audit staff recommends that NAC amend its disclosure reports to correct the misstatement.

Legal Standard

Contents of Reports. Each report must disclose:

- the amount of cash on hand at the beginning and end of the reporting period;
- the total amount of receipts for the reporting period and for the calendar year;
- the total amount of disbursements for the reporting period and for the calendar year; and
- certain transactions that require itemization on Schedule A (Itemized Receipts) or Schedule B (Itemized Disbursements). 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(1), (2), (3), (4) and (5).

Facts and Analysis

A. Facts

The Audit staff reconciled NAC's reported activity with its bank records and identified a misstatement of disbursements for 2011 through 2012.² The following chart details the discrepancies and succeeding paragraphs explain the reasons for the misstatements.

	Reported	Bank Records	Discrepancy
Beginning Cash Balance @ May 4, 2011	$0	$0	$0
Receipts	$20,061,878	$20,068,175	$6,297 Understated
Disbursements	$20,035,206	$20,067,044	$31,838 Understated
Ending Cash Balance @ December 31, 2012	$26,672	$1,131	$25,541 Overstated

As indicated in the chart above, reported disbursements for 2011 through 2012 were understated by $31,838. Furthermore, the Audit staff identified the following adjustments that should be made to correct the reporting of disbursements:

² NAC's first receipt of funds was on May 4, 2011.

•	Salary, payroll taxes, and processing fees under or not reported	$ 1,022,043
•	Salary and payroll taxes over reported	884,529
•	Duplicate disbursement transactions reported	72,855
•	Correction to reports for checks that were voided	24,260
•	Disbursement amounts over reported (or not debited by the bank)	11,640
•	Disbursements not reported	5,968
•	Bank corrections erroneously reported as disbursements	2,918
	Sum of Reporting Adjustments	$2,024,213

NAC regularly misreported its payroll and payroll taxes over the entire reporting period which resulted in a salary and payroll tax understatement of $1,022,043. This consisted of payroll tax understatements totaling $885,609 and salary understatements totaling $136,434. Conversely, salary and payroll taxes over reported, $884,529, consisted of salary payments totaling $872,394 and payroll taxes totaling $12,135. This resulted from reporting individual gross salary amounts instead of the net salary amounts.

B. Preliminary Audit Report & Audit Division Recommendation

At the exit conference, the Audit staff discussed and provided a schedule of the misstated amounts to NAC representatives. NAC representatives said they would amend their reports in response to the Preliminary Audit Report.

The Audit staff recommends that, within 60 calendar days of the service of this report, NAC amend its disclosure reports to correct the misstatement.

Finding 2. Disclosure of Receipts

Summary

During audit fieldwork, the Audit staff identified 16 receipts totaling $2,704,569 that were missing or lacked required disclosure information. The Audit staff recommends that NAC amend its reports and correctly disclose these transactions on Schedule A (Itemized Receipts).

Legal Standard

The Audit staff recommends that, within 60 calendar days of the service of this report, NAC amend its reports to correctly disclose these receipts on Schedule A.

Finding 3. Disclosure of Disbursements
