FEC RELEASES 1977 DATA ON POLITICAL PARTY COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON-March 5 - The Federal Election Commission today released preliminary 1977 campaign finance figures and charts showing that 34 national and congressional committees of the Republican and Democratic political parties raised $24.1 million during most of 1977, and spent $22.9 million, including nearly ½ million in contributions to federal candidates and $30,000 in other expenditures relating to federal candidates. The FEC preliminary figures showed cash-on-hand near the end of 1977 for the 34 party committees to be about $9 million (not counting any offsetting debts and obligations due).

Included in the preliminary charts were 17 Democratic Party committees, (comprised of 6 national party committees and 12 congressional-related committees), and 17 Republican Party committees, (comprised of 10 national party committees, 6 congressional-related committees, and 1 joint fund-raiser committee).

The FEC survey also showed that 187 state and local political party committees of the two parties reported 1977 receipts of $8.2 million, and expenditures of $8.0 million, including $63,000 in contributions to federal candidates and $23,000 in other expenditures relating to federal candidates. The state political party committee survey included 77 Democratic Party committees and 110 Republican Party committees. These figures only include state and local political party committees, (or separate federal election committees of a state or local political party) that: (i) are registered under the Federal Election Campaign Act and (ii) reported federal campaign activity during 1977.

The FEC noted the following details about the statistics:

- The preliminary figures are complete as of September 30, 1977 for committees filing quarterly reports and November 30, 1977 for committees filing monthly reports.
- Receipt and expenditure figures have been adjusted to subtract transfers of funds reported between affiliated committees in order to arrive at a more accurate net figure of receipts and expenditures.
- Cash-on-hand figures, taken from the last reports filed prior to the end-of-the-year report, do not include any debts and obligations reported as owed by the committees that, when paid, would reduce the amount of cash-on-hand.
- Contribution figures are not broken down between contributions for current election campaigns and contributions made to retire debts from prior campaigns.

The preliminary 1977 figures are broken down by party as follows:

(1) National and Congressional Party Committees:

(a) Democratic Party: Adjusted receipts, $5.6 million; adjusted expenditures, $4.9 million; contributions to federal candidates, $27,000; other expenditures relating to federal candidates, $700; and cash-on-hand at end of 1977, (not counting any debts or obligations due), $867,000.

(b) Republican Party: Adjusted receipts, $18.5 million; adjusted expenditures, $18.0 million; contributions to federal candidates, $456,000; other expenditures relating to federal candidates, $30,000; and cash-on-hand at the end of 1977, (not counting any debts or obligations due), $8.2 million.

(2) State and Local Party Committees registered under the FECA:

(a) Democratic Party: Adjusted receipts $2.4 million; adjusted expenditures, $2.4 million; contributions to federal candidates, $32,000; and other expenditures relating to federal candidates, $15,000.

(b) Republican Party: Adjusted receipts, $5.8 million; adjusted expenditures, $5.6 million; contributions to federal candidates, $31,000; and other expenditures relating to federal candidates, $8,000.

The FEC said a complete 1977 study will be released as soon as the end-of-the year reports which were due by January 31, 1978, are analyzed. In addition, periodic reports will be issued on this data during 1978. The figures, which are based on the reports filed by the individual committees themselves, were put together using the FEC's computer system.

This is the second preliminary study on 1977 financial activity released by the FEC. On February 8, 1978, the FEC issued similar figures and charts on 1360 political committees (PAC's) not connected with candidates or political parties.
