FEC PUBLISHES COMMITTEE NAMES FOR FAILURE TO FILE REPORTS

WASHINGTON — The Federal Election Commission today is releasing the names of candidate committees which failed to file the semiannual report of receipts and expenditures.

The report was due by close of business July 31. If sent certified or registered mail, it must have been postmarked by midnight of that date.

Under the 1979 Amendments to the Federal Election Campaign Act, if 1980 is not an election year for a candidate, (that is, if the candidate ran for federal office prior to 1980, and is retiring debts, or is seeking election after 1980), that candidate's campaign must file semiannual reports.

The first such report is due July 31. The second, or year-end report, is due January 31 of the following year. The reports include information on all financial activity occurring during those six-month periods.

All committees were notified in advance of their potential reporting requirements.

Further Commission action against non-filers and late filers will be decided on a case-by-case basis. The Federal Election Campaign Act gives the Commission broad authority to initiate enforcement actions, including civil court enforcement and the imposition of civil penalties ($5,000 for "any violation" and $10,000 for any "knowing and willfull" violation) for infractions of the law, including failure to file require disclosure reports.

The following list includes only the principal campaign committees of federal candidates, since the principal committee is responsible for compiling and reporting all information from any other authorized committees of the candidate.
