FEC CITES COMMITTEES FOR FAILING TO DISCLOSE CAMPAIGN INFORMATION

WASHINGTON — A total of 419 committees of U.S. House, Senate and Presidential candidates have been cited by the Federal Election Commission for failing to file 1980 year-end disclosure reports. Reports from 337 House, 77 Senate and 5 Presidential campaigns had not been filed by close-of-business Thursday, February 12.

The reports were due January 31, 1981. If sent certified or registered mail, they should have been postmarked by that date. Campaigns involved in last year's primary and general elections should have disclosed financial activity for either the last month or last quarter of 1980. Committees of candidates who ran for office in elections prior to 1980 were required to file reports covering the last six months of 1980. All committees should have reported year-to-date figures for the entire calendar year.

In addition to end-of-year non-filers, the FEC is publishing a list of 52 candidates' committees for failure to file the 30-day post-general election report. Those reports were due December 4, 1980. A separate list of these committees follows the state listing of year-end non-filers.

The Federal Election Campaign Act requires all committees supporting candidates in U.S. House, Senate and Presidential races to file reports on a quarterly basis in an election year. Additional reports must be filed prior to primary elections and before and after the November general elections. Committees with debts from past campaign years must file semi-annual reports.

All committees are notified by the FEC of potential reporting requirements approximately one month in advance of each reporting date. Committees which fail to file timely reports are again notified after the due date that their reports have not been received. By law, only authorized committees of candidates are published.

In non-election years, authorized committees of House and Senate candidates must file semi-annual reports. This does not apply to committees of candidates involved in special off-year elections, or to PAC's or party-related committees. The next required report for candidates' committees will be due July 31, 1981, covering the first six months of this year.

Failure to file the required reports results in publication of committee names on a list of non-filers. Further FEC action against non-filers and late filers is decided on a case-by-case basis, depending on the amount of financial activity involved, the percent of vote received and/or the lateness of the report. The election law gives the Commission broad authority to initiate enforcement actions, including civil court enforcement and the imposition of civil penalties ($5,000 for "any violation" and $10,000 for any "knowing and willfull violation") for infractions of the law, including failure to file required disclosure reports.
