1981-82 PAC GIVING UP 51%

WASHINGTON -- Political action committee contributions to 1981-82 Congressional campaigns increased 51% over 1979-80 PAC activity. Total spending by these committees rose 47%.

Federal Election Commission figures released today reveal that PAC's contributed $83.1 million to the 1982 Congressional races, compared with $55.2 million given just two years ago.

An additional $4 - $5 million in contributions was given by PAC's in 1981-82 either to retire debts from previous campaigns or for future races. That brings total PAC contributions for the two-year election cycle to $87.3 million; in 1979-80, the final figure was $60.2 million.

In addition to contributions, PAC's spent $5.3 million on independent expenditures -- monies spent to advocate the election or defeat of candidates, which are made without the cooperation of or consultation with any candidate's campaign.

PAC's also contributed $6 million to political party committees.

During 1981-82, PAC's raised $199.3 million and spent $190.4 million. They began the cycle with $22.5 million cash-on-hand and ended with $31.4 million, owing just over $5 million as of December 31, 1982.

Although the FEC study looked at the activity of some 3,727 PAC's, by the end of 1982, there were 3,371 in existence.

Incumbents received 3½ times as much PAC money as did challengers, receiving 66% of all PAC contributions to challengers 19%.

The gap between contributions given to Democrats versus Republicans widened - Democrats received 54%; Republicans, 46%. In 1980, the split was 52% to 47%.

Contributions by PAC's over the past three election cycles were:

	1981-82	1979-80	1977-78
To all federal candidates	$87.3	$60.2	$35.2
To Senate & House candidates	$83.1	$55.2	$34.1

The FEC Reports on Financial Activity, 1981-82, Interim Report No. 4: Party and Non-Party Political Committees is a four-volume study. Copies will be available for purchase in early May 1983, from the Commission's Office of Public Records, 1325 K St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463. Cost is $5 per volume.

Information on the following pages provides greater detail on all PAC spending, including listings of those PAC's with the greatest amount of financial activity.

- 1/ Adjusted receipt and disbursement figures do not include monies transferred between affiliated committees, and therefore are more representative of actual receipts and disbursements.
- 2/ Largest cash-on-hand is as of December 31, 1982, unless committee census reporting earlier in the election cycle or has not yet filed all reports.
- 3/ The number of committees includes only those committees which actually make contributions in 1981-82. For the number of committees in existence, see FEC Press Release, January 14, 1983, PNC's Increase in Number.
- 4/ Figures include contributions to all federal candidates, including those who did not run for office during 1981-82. Figures in italics in parentheses represent amounts given only to candidates seeking office in 1981-82 Congressional races.
- 5/ Open seat races are only those in which the incumbent never sought re-election.
