FEC COMPUTER TAPES AVAILABLE

WASHINGTON--Computer tapes are available from the Federal Election Commission containing final campaign finance information from the 1983-84 election cycle. These are copies of the tape from which the FEC recently compiled and published its five volume study, FEC Reports on Financial Activity, 1983-84, Final Report. The study covers Senate and House Candidates, political action committees and Democratic and Republican political party committees.

Cost of the tapes are: Senate and House candidates, $70; political action committees, $70; political party committees, $55. Similar tapes are also available for the 1977-78, 1979-80, and 1981-82 election cycles.

The tapes may be purchased from the FEC's Data Development Systems Office. For further information, call Mr. Bob Biersack, 202/376-5230.

Also, copies of the Commission's published study may be purchased, individually or as a set, from its Office of Public Records, 1325 K Street, NW. The cost is $15 per volume with advance payment required.
