$458 MILLION SPENT BY 1988 CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGNS

WASHINGTON — Preliminary tabulations by the Federal Election Commission show that 1988 Congressional spending increased by only negligible amounts from what was spent in 1986. From 1986 to 1988, House spending rose 7.2%, from $239.3 million to $256.5 million, while Senate spending decreased 5%, from $211.7 million to $201.2 million.

By comparison, spending in the 1986 Congressional races was more than 20 percent greater than in 1984.

Winning campaigns in '88, by contrast, showed increases of 18.5% in spending for the Senate and 10.3% for the House over '86. The following table details winning campaign statistics over the years.

	Senate

(figures in millions of dollars)

Although 1988 produced fewer candidates for Senate and House races, the predominant factors in the lack of major changes in the overall figures include fewer large Senate races, open seat races, and close House races.

As previous reports have indicated, candidates raised approximately the same amount of money in '88 ($476.5 million) as they did in '86 ($472.1 million), but the percentage raised from two main sources - individuals and PAC's - varies, particularly for general election candidates.

While overall financial activity remained stable, a pattern has developed concerning contributions by PAC's. PAC contributions accounted for 24% of general election Senate candidates' receipts and 40% of House candidates' receipts. Historically, incumbents have received the largest percentage of their receipts from PAC's, but an analysis of the 1988 data on general election candidates also shows growing PAC support (in terms of percentages) for Democratic challengers and Democrats running for open seats. Republican House incumbents received 39.69% of all their funds from PAC's, while, although much smaller in amount, Democratic House challengers and candidates for open seats received 33.21% and 38.12% respectively. Democratic House incumbents accepted 51.46% from PAC's, while Republican House challengers received only 11.43% from PAC's and Republicans in open seat races, 23.5%.

This preliminary overview of 1988 Congressional campaign finance has been taken from summary figures provided by the candidates' campaigns. A final Report on Financial Activity will be issued by the FEC later this year, once all reports have been fully computerized, analyzed and amended.

The charts on the following pages reflect the activity of all Congressional campaigns by subgroups, general election candidates as a separate group, six-year summaries for Senate general election contenders, and rankings of Senate and House candidates for the most money raised, spent, received from individuals and PAC's, and of those campaigns which have the most money left over or which are in the worst debt situation.

FOOTNOTES

1. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign. They have not been adjusted for refunds or repayments.

2. Columns entitled "Other Committees" (also "Other Cmte's) are monies received, as reported by the campaigns, that are comprised mostly of PAC funds, but also include contributions by other candidates' committees and some unregistered entities. On the 6-year Senate listings, the column "Non Party Contributions" contains PAC contributions for 1984 and 1986, as reported by the PAC's, and "Other Committee" data, as reported by campaigns, for 1988.

3. Open seat races are those in which the incumbent did not seek reelection. As such, both general election candidates in California's 12th district are classified as challengers. Districts where special elections have been held at times separate from the regular election calendar (CA/5, CT/4, IL/21, LA/4, TN/5, and VA/5) have been divided into two races. During the special election period all candidates are considered open seat, and appear as such in the Tables referring to ALL campaigns. Winners of specials are considered incumbents for the regular election process and any other candidate who participated in both the special and regular process is considered a challenger during the regular election period. Districts where special elections were held in conjunction with the general (NJ/3, TN/2) have been classified as open seat and were not divided.

4. Percentage figures in Tables covering several election cycles represent the percentage of net receipts from each source and will not sum to 100, since not all sources of receipts are listed.

5. On the Senate listings, the column titled "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titled "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PAC's made through these joint fundraising efforts are not included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.

6. Detailed listings of candidates include all those participating in the November 8th general election, along with those candidates in Louisiana who received at least 50% of the vote in the primary and were therefore declared the winner of the seat.

7. Some House members who were running for the Senate in '88 changed their former House campaign committees into their Senate campaign committees (and in the case of McEwen in Ohio and Moody in Wisconsin then reverted back to House committees). Financial activity related solely to their Senate campaigns cannot be isolated. (See also Boulter (TX), Dowdy (MS), Jeffords (VT)).

8. One incumbent Senator has carried debts from a previous election which continues to be reflected in the "Debts Owed" column of the detailed listing and in Top 50 listings. See Lautenberg (NJ).

9. Figures in "ALL CAMPAIGN" summary Tables (but not General election Tables) for House Democratic Open Seat candidates are significantly affected by two special election campaigns in Tennessee. Jane Eskind provided her campaign with $1,097,500 in loans from the candidate which were reported as repayed and replaced with candidate contributions totalling $1,373,413. This reporting practice inflates Net Receipts, Candidate Loans, and Net Disbursements. Philip Bredesen provided his campaign with $1,851,600 in loans which have not been repayed or converted.

10. Figures for Senate Democratic Open Seats in all Tables are significantly affected by the campaign of Herbert Kohl in Wisconsin. Contributions from the candidate totalling $6,135,071 in this single campaign represents 96% of all candidate contributions in Senate general election campaigns.

11. Elizabeth Patterson (SC/4) reported significant roll over of debt from the 1986 campaign. Loans from banks were repayed with newly borrowed money. The reporting of this activity inflates receipts and disbursements significantly.

12. Top 50 rankings include primary losers. Details of those campaigns do not appear on subsequent candidate listings. Rankings do not take into consideration any refunds made.
