RECEIPTS RISE $31.8 MILLION FOR '92 CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGNS

WASHINGTON -- Receipts during 1991 for this year's congressional campaigns increased by $31.8 million compared to the same period in the 1990 election, according to the Federal Election Commission.

The FEC found that Senate and House candidates raised $159.9 million and spent $89.5 million in 1991 and entered the election year with cash on hand of $159.7 million.

The following table compares non-election year activities for all Senate and House campaigns in the last three cycles:

Cycle	Receipts	Disbursements	Cash on Hand
92	$159.9	$89.5	$159.7
90	$128.1	$70.8	$129.1
88	$111.5	$58.6	$108.9

(in millions)

As the above table demonstrates, candidates appear to be raising funds earlier. There has been a 25 percent increase in this cycle's non-election year fundraising, however a rise of 15 percent occurred between 1987 and 1989; but by the end of the 89-90 cycle receipts had leveled. Although this does not necessarily mean an increase for the entire cycle, there are indications that fundraising levels will be much higher in the 1992 cycle. Included in those factors pushing this increase are redistricting, two California Senate races and the uncertainty caused by close contests in the last election.

In Senate contests, candidates reported raising $77 million ($49 million from individuals; $17.5 million from PACs) and spending $35.7 million in 1991. These campaigns had cash on hand of $62.3 million as of December 31, 1991. Cycle-to-cycle comparisons of Senate races are discouraged because, in part, different seats in different states are up for election each cycle.

Receipts in 1991 for House candidates increased $17.3 million, or 26 percent, to $82 million, while spending grew $10.8 million, or 25 percent, to $53 million. House campaigns reported entering the election year with $97.4 million cash on hand.

Political action committees (PACs) in 1991 contributed $17.5 million to Senate candidates and $34.9 million to House candidates.

Information provided in this report includes:

1. Overall summary of Senate and House activity by political party and candidate status (incumbent, challenger, open seat).
2. Comparison of non-election year Senate and House activity for the 1992, 1988 and 1986 election cycles.
3. Six-year financial summaries of current Senate candidates.
4. Financial activity of 1986 Senate general election candidates through non-election year 1985.
5. Senate candidate ranking for the following categories: receipts, contributions from individuals, contributions from PACs, disbursements, cash on hand and debts.
6. House candidate ranking for the following categories: receipts, contributions from individuals, contributions from PACs, disbursements, cash on hand and debts.

For purposes of this release, the House categories "challenger" and "open seat" have been combined into "non-incumbents" because exact determinations of candidate status cannot be made until redistricting is final in all states.

FOOTNOTES

1. Figures in the first two Tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1991, or whenever the campaign registered during the election cycle, through December 31, 1991, or the last report filed by the campaign, as indicated.

2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.

3. Columns entitled "Other Cmte Contributions" are monies contributed to campaigns by PAC's and other committees as reported by the campaigns. Other committees include primarily committees of other candidates.

4. On the Senate listings, the column titled "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titled "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PAC's made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "PAC Contributions" columns.

5. One Senate candidate has carried debts from previous elections which continue to be reflected in the "Debts Owed" column of the detailed listing and in Top 50 listings. See Lonsdale [OR].
